The Internet has manifested as a very easy-to-reach source for many. Literature has taken a voluminous proportion of cyber space. What better Thing to do than to tap on this resource for the teaching and learning of Tamil Language? My paper will present the possibilities of an online learning resource for Tamil Language. The paper will take us through why the cyber space is a far better medium to impart literary Knowledge and also the possibilities of exploiting the best use of Multimedia to develop interest in literature, with special reference to Tamil Language.
